Steps to create a GED.com account

Your name on your account must exactly match your identification document that will be presented at the test centre. If your name does not match you will not be able to sit for your exam and you will not receive a refund.

Please note that students are required to provide one valid form of identification.

- The ID must be government issued and non-expired.
- It must also include the student's name, date of birth, signature, and photograph.
- Students can provide more than one form of identification to meet the requirements above.

If the student does not provide the proper IDs, the student will NOT be allowed to test.

Go to GED.com

The screenshot shows the MyGED Dashboard with the following elements:

- Navigation bar: Home, About the Test, Study, Test Tips, Where to Test, My Scores, SCHEDULE TEST button, Chat, Profile.
- Subject tabs: Language Arts (selected), Science, Social Studies, Math.
- Alert section: "You have an alert!" with a yellow exclamation mark icon. Text: "Your account has an alert. This means you can't schedule your test right now. Alerts come from rules your state has for testing. Complete the steps needed to clear your alert and you'll be able to schedule." A "Clear my alert" button is present.
- Prep for Language Arts with GED Flash™: "GED Flash™ for Language Arts gives you access to hundreds of practice questions. You'll get instant results and explanations that show you how to master each concept." A "Learn more" button is present.
- Prove you're ready: "Take the official practice test, GED Ready®. Find out if you're likely to pass and exactly what to study." A "Take GED Ready®" button is present.
- Footer banner: "LEARN ONLINE WITH GED LIVE" and "Get started" button with a right arrow.

If the screen says “You have an alert”, this is because you are under 18 and need a parent to sign a consent form.

If you are over 18, it will say “Start Scheduling” and you can continue through the online booking process.

Select the button that says “Start Scheduling” OR

Click “Clear my Alert” and download and print the form which must first be signed by both the parent and the candidate, scanned and emailed back to help@ged.com. Make sure you use your full name as it appears on your identity document and on your newly created GED account when you do this.

Within 24 hours you should receive an email stating that your age requirement has been approved. You can then log in to the website again, and start scheduling your test.

The screenshot shows the My Alerts page header with the following elements:

- Navigation bar: Home, About the Test, Study, Test Tips, Where to Test, My Scores, SCHEDULE TEST button, Chat, Profile.
